Chicago, March 27th, 2020

Asalam alaikum,

By now, everyone is feeling the uncertainty that the coronavirus (COVID-19) has caused around the world. Our community and our masjid are no different.

The Masjid revenue just hits its rock bottom. Any donations that are usually collected on Fridays or during the daily prayers are no longer coming in. Schools and activities are all cancelled. Even our active members in the community can no longer go out and solicit donations for the masjid. They have to shelter-in-house. Our community and our masjid are in very tight spot and they need your help and support.

Furthermore, right before this pandemic crisis, our masjid had engaged in a project of purchasing the building next door from Bank of America. Al hamdulil Allah, the purchase was successful. The community is delighted by this expansion. The investment will no doubt be huge return on the community. However, the masjid now needs to pay back money borrowed from generous members of our community, and again, that's where your support comes in.

And finally, if your child attends one of ICCI schools, please contact school administration and make a payment. This would count towards your support as well.

The masjid will live through this crisis and will emerge out of it safe and sound in sha Allah. But this is another opportunity to show your generosity. Now is the best time to make your biggest investment with Allah. When the going gets tough, your dollar goes a long way. Your one dollar in the sight of Allah may be counted as thousands or millions of dollars.

Please give a dollar or hundreds of dollars. Your intension will be rewarded accordingly, and Allah knows best.
